

Announcement

17 March 2009

Migration Statistics: Interim Report – open meeting

A meeting to discuss the interim findings of a review by the UK Statistics Authority on improvements to migration statistics will be held at the Royal Statistical Society, 12 Errol Street, London, EC1Y 8LX on 22nd April 2009, 2pm-4pm (coffee and registration from 1.30pm).

Please contact the UK Statistics Authority at authority.enquiries@statistics.gov.uk to reserve your place – attendance is free but places are limited to 60.

The Interim Report will be published on 2nd April on the Authority website:
<http://www.statisticsauthority.gov.uk/>.

There will be a question and answer session and also the opportunity for some short (3 minute) presentations – if you would like to speak, please indicate this when you book a place.